ALIENS FROM THE EARTH

by Barbora Biskupová

My name is Urbetlam. I live in Urun. That's on Venus, of course.

I look like a normal person from Venus (orange and red).

One day I walked along the streets in Urun. But... BANG...

In front of me landed a UFO. The door opened and a big pink man

came out. He said: "Hello, alien, I'm from the Earth."

I had a shock and I didn't say a word.

He shrugged his shoulders and went to his rocket.

And the spaceship

flew back to the Earth.

FORTUNATELY.

HALF A MAGIC GRAPE

by Barbora Biskupová

One day I walked along a street and I met an old woman. I said to her: "Good morning." She smiled at me and gave me half a grape. My parents always told me: "Never take things that strangers give you." But when I took the half of the grape, I heard: "Eat the grape, say what you want to be and for an hour you will be it."

I ate half of the magic grape and I said: "I want to be a bird." Then I changed into a bird. I was happy and I wanted to fly but behind a tree was a cat. And the cat wanted to eat me. I ran or flew (I don't know) to a park. But the cat ran after me...

For one hour the cat was following me around the park. Fortunately, when the clock struck one, I changed into me again.

And the cat had bad luck.

Friday 13th

by Kristýna Stuchlíková

It was Friday 13th. You know... It's a horrible day.

Two children - Patrick and Jessica - saw a castle on the hill.

All the people said: "It's the horrible castle, don't go there!!!"

Patrick and Jessica wanted an adventure. So they went in. They opened the big door. They went straight ahead. There was a big ghost standing in front of them. They got a shock! The ghost shouted. The ghost had a lock on his neck. The children thought the ghost was good. So they went for the key from his lock and opened his lock. The ghost was very happy. The ghost and the children are now friends.

Every Friday the children go to the castle to see the ghost.

My very good friend

by Kristýna Stuchlíková

My best friend's name is Barča Biskupová. She is eleven years old.

She is very clever. She is good at sports and at painting. She likes tigers very much. We sometimes listen to music. We play with modelling clay. She and I like animals. We play together a game called Citadela. It is a good game. We go together to our English lessons (The Redbrick House). We go to the same class. She never lets me down and she never laughs at me.

Mascot

by Kristýna Stuchlíková

My mascot is a grey sheep.

My grandmother brought it to me from Italy. The sheep is in my bed but I never take it to school. I love it!

My sheep is long (about 35 cm-I think).

Her ears are dark. The face is light yellow (white). The kind of 'NICI'. When I go to sleep this sheep is next to me...

My brother has a mascot too.

It's a soft toy Kuky (my brother's name is Lukáš and his friends call him Kuky...). I gave it to him for his birthday. He likes it very much.

The Super UFO dog

by Honza Rajmont

When I came back from school, I saw my dog behind the house and he had green fur, a super collar with a space phone and he said: “Bow, sir, here is agent Puppy, the world takeover can start, sir! Bow.”

I ran into my house, ran into my room and locked the door. The “Puppy“ was there. When we had a talk, I understood, they don’t want to destroy us but they are in a war with other dogs, with our world dogs, the World Takeover was the name of his mission.

My walk home

by Tomáš Mrkous

When I first went home from school, horrible things happened to me. I had my first lunch in the school canteen. The cooks gave me some earthworms and snails on the plate. I asked them if they had anything better to eat than this. They asked me: “Do you want some more?”

I quickly got out of the room and rushed to the cloakroom. Bad news was waiting for me there. My jacket was covered in slime and my shoes were filled up with water. I rather went home only in my T-shirt, though it was only 11°C.

Then I went to the train station. At the ticket office a giant monster snapped at me. It had 10 eyes and 25 hands. I ran to the platform. I got on the train and I met the conductor. He looked quite normal, but then he called: “Tickets, please!” and I said: “I haven’t got a ticket.” He got furious and started yelling at me. Then he jumped out of the train.

As the train stopped, I ran towards my home. Just in front of our garden, I fell down. All the monsters from the street jumped at me. They wanted to eat me and then...

...then my alarm clock started to ring.

THE END

Sir Gundolf

by Linda Skálová

Sir Gundolf was dead for a long time. Very, very, very long time.

One day Susan and Peter went to an old castle. In an old kitchen they saw a ghost. They were horrified. Peter computed and he found out that the ghost was Sir Gundolf. He was angry and he had a heart attack. He fell on the floor !!!!!

$$(x + a)^n = \sum_{k=0}^n \binom{n}{k} x^k a^{n-k}$$

!!!!

Sir Gundolf was dead twice.
The end!

THE DEAD CAT

by Linda Skálová

The bag was gone. Mr. Barton went to bed and he slept. Next day he was in a bad mood and he turned his head. He saw his dead cat. He had a shock. He went to his car and he went to the police station. They spoke with him and took him to a mental hospital. This happened three years ago.

Magic

by Linda Skálová

I had a magic hand. It was great. One day I said: 'I want to be a house.' And I was a house. But I couldn't transform back to Linda. I was sad. This was my end in my last life.

John and Clara went home because they had dinner.

HERO FROM MY DREAM

by Matěj Višňa

Me and my family lived on a small planet Giovara. One year people from the Alliance of Death came to our planet and they killed all the people on Giovara. My father constructed a small spaceship for me. I named the spaceship Vendetta.

I escaped and landed on another planet and there I upgraded my spaceship. Vendetta had two rocket cannons, four laser cannons and one big plasma cannon. With these cannons I destroyed all the spaceships of the Alliance of Death. People celebrated me and I was proud. "Get up now!!!!" my mother shouted. It was only a dream!!

THE DEAD CAT

by Matěj Višňa

The bag was destroyed because the cat was an alien cat. The cat would eat Mr Burton, but it didn't do this, because a superman turned up and killed the cat and threw it into the biggest ocean in the world.

In year 2 000 000:

The cat turned up in the ocean. The cat went to the nearest city and ate all people in the city. The cat destroyed all the cities in the world. No one stopped it, so this was the end of the world.

by Matěj Višňa

How many is are there???

Three magic diskettes

by Max Král

The old man gave me three magic diskettes.

I inserted the first diskette into my notebook and I wrote: I want to be famous. After a while, reporters and cameramen ran to me. I was already tired, so I put another diskette into the notebook and I wrote: I do not want to be famous. I want to be a film stuntman. But then I got bored too. Finally, I had only one diskettes left, but what to write? I want to be what I was before, I wrote. I changed into myself. I was happy.

The end.

! UFO !

by Robin Primus

Last year, when I was on my way home, a big grey UFO landed in front of me! The door opened and a thin blue man came out. He went to my house and to my family.

"Where do you want to go?" he asked.

"Please take me to a planet in outer space," I said.

Three weeks later, we landed on a little red planet.

There were lots of thin blue people. I stayed with them for four weeks and I learned how to be blue.

They sometimes visit me in my bedroom.

It looked like a normal day but Steve met a big dog on his way to work. Steve was afraid of dogs, so he ran to the Magic shop. The shopkeeper (an old woman) asked Steve: 'Can I help you?' and Steve said: 'No ... I'm ... I'm afraid of dogs.' The shopkeeper just laughed and gave him a magic coin and said: 'Here is a coin. When the dog sees it, it will run away.' 'Thank you very much!' Steve said and left the shop. The dog was hiding a few meters away. Linux 0.0.1 Magician Edition

by Martin Hašek

Once upon a time there was a magician with the oldest computer in the world. His name was Linus and he was searching for new spells. Suddenly his computer said: ‘New version of BIOS was successfully installed, reboot now?’ Linus clicked on ‘Yes’ and his computer started to reboot. Meanwhile, Linus was going to the toilet. When he came back, he saw this message: ‘Please, insert the floppy disk with the operating system.’ Linus was very angry because he didn’t have that floppy disk and the geek shop with that floppy disk was on the other side of the ocean. Linus was too lazy to say the teleport spell, so he started to program a new operating system in language C#. It took a few days to do it, but he finally did it and he was very proud. Now he was able to continue searching new spells. And that’s how the kernel of Linux was born.

My mascots

by Honza Suchánek

My mascots are two golden coins. On the coins there are gold angels. On one coin the angel is holding a blue crystal and the other angel is holding a red or pink crystal. The angel with the red crystal gives me Harmony and the other angel gives me Luck.

I always have them in my right pocket. Sometimes I put them on my forehead because then their powers have better effect.

Sports

by Honza Suchánek

I am lazy but I like snowboarding. But I like games like Scrabble or Activity. I like drawing pictures too. I draw every day, because I want to be better. But I want to be a writer. But that is not the issue. And I do gymnastics. I like it. We have lessons twice a week. I won many competitions but I was always the second. But finally, this year I defeated my rival and I was the FIRST!!!

The magic chocolate

Mystery house

by Jakub Morávek

We were moving from London to Stoke Wake. I detest living in the country. My parents promised a super house for our family. They were lying. The house was terrible but even more terrible were our neighbours. It was the worst. First day I was killing mice in my room, my family were killing too. At 12:10 we had a lunch break. In the evening, my family went for a walk through the forests around our new house. I stayed at home. I was very angry because I hated the house. When they went out, it was getting dark and I felt nervous when the phone rang. I picked it up.... it was my grandma. The phone fell down and broke, it was a mystery - I wasn't doing anything wrong. My parents weren't back. It was scary. The neighbours were now in our living room with my father's head in their hands. I started crying. They were going to kill me.

Then I woke up. It was a dream.

Next day my dad said: "We are moving in a month!"

Music

by Jakub Morávek

My favourite music genres are grunge and metal. I started listening to these genres when I was 9 years old. I have been listening to these genres for four years.

My favourite bands are: Guns'n'Roses, Nirvana, Metalica, Deep Purple, Cream, Lynyrd Skynyrd. I like these bands because their music is inventive. I like to listen at my computer because I search music on the Internet. I don't like genres like hip hop or rap. They are stupid.

I have been playing the guitar for two years.

THE MIDNIGHT AEROPLANE

by ARTUR BERGMAN and VOJTA KOLÁČNÍK

Once upon a time a plane (the AIR FORCE ONE) flew somewhere above Columbia.

The American Special Unit was practicing in the sky. The parachutists from SEALS hit the plane and died. The president of the USA had a problem with his stomach because the head of one of the men fell to Mr. Obama's window... His plane started to fall down because one of the parachutists got stuck in the left jet engine. Mr. Obama died tragically, but in the hearts of all the Americans he LIVES FOREVER!!!

The empty house

by Marek Špaňhel

In one small village there was an abandoned house on the hill. Every night weird things happen there and weird noises come from the house. Some people think that ghosts are in there, others think that it is buildt on an Indian cemetery and others think it is haunted by the man who used to live there. He was killed, but no one knows how. One cold night another murder happened, so a detective came to investigate. He asked many people but all of them told him the same thing: "I don't know anything about it but I think it is connected to the murder of the man in the house on the hill." He was curious about the old case so much that he wanted to investigate in the house. So he went there.

When he entered the house, the door immediately closed behind him. He was scared. Suddenly, he heard some weird noises from upstairs. He went there slowly. He saw some weird red eyes behind the window. He screamed and ran down the stairs but unfortunately the old stairs fell down when he stepped on them. He was unconscious. When he woke up, he found himself in a crypt. He stood up and tried to open the door of the crypt but he could not open it. He suddenly heard growling of some animal and something tore him apart...

Then he woke up and found it was only a dream. When he got out of his bed and looked in the mirror, he saw scars on his body. Maybe, just maybe, it was not a dream...

MUSIC

by Petr Libora

I like a many styles of music, for example: rock'n'roll, OI, punk, trash metal, heavy metal, techno and reggae. I've liked these styles for a few years and I won't stop listening to them. My favourite singers are Bon Scott, Brian Johnson, Marilyn Manson and Ozzy Osbourne.

My favourite bands are Rammstein, Operace Artaban, Wahnout, AC/DC, Landser, System of a Down, Metallica, Deep Purple, The Doors, Dropkick Murphys, KoRn, Krucipüsk, Megadeth, Twisted Sister and Led Zeppelin.

I like listening to music at many places: on the bus, in the car, when I am walking, at school, at home, before I go to sleep. Music is really great.

OI! OI! OI!

The empty house

by Karolína Mašková

It was 10 pm and a black cat was going through the dark forest. But the cat wasn't normal.

Meanwhile, a woman was going through the forest. She was looking for the house where there might be some ghosts because she wanted to see the ghosts. When she found the house and went into it, the black cat was looking at her. The woman went to the room which was probably a room of some young girls because there were four beds and the walls were pink. But nobody was there, and in the other rooms there was nobody either.

While she was looking into the living room, the black cat was looking at her. But somebody else was looking to her too – it was a ghost. When the woman saw the ghost, she started to run, but the cat jumped at her and scratched her in the face and in the eye. The woman fainted. She woke up while some ghosts were looking at her. There was something really strange about them – everyone had a scratch in their face and didn't have one eye. One week later someone wrote in the newspaper “A dead woman was found in the dark forest, at the empty house, nobody knows how she died and nobody knows who did it. But there is something strange – the woman has a scratch in her face.”

Strange dream

by Terka Pajgrtová

I was sitting on the (sofa) , when I fell asleep and had strange dream. In my dream I was sitting on a chair and I was watching (TV) .

Suddenly, my doorbell rang and the postman was standing near my house. He knocked at my door. He gave me a letter. In the letter someone wrote: You won a prize. You can arrive to at a palace and in the palace there are (dogs)

with (glasses) .

I was fifteen years old! I was swimming in a pool with sharks. It was very, very strange because sharks aren't my cup of tea.

Suddenly my (dog) licked my head. So I woke up.

MUSIC

by Terka Pajgrtová

My favourite music is jazz, reggae and pop music. I don't like metal or heavy metal. It's like vomiting. I like fast music, but slow one is good too, it is relaxing.

My favourite music groups are Beatles, Abba, Queen, Green day, etc. My favourite singers are Barry White, Leonard Cohen, Michael Jackson, Katy Perry...

For example Cohen has a lot of popular slow songs.

I play the piano, but I am not good.

I listen to music a lot on the radio and in the car and sometimes in bed.

Černošice

by Terka Pajgrtová

Černošice is a small and nice town near the Prague. It has leafy, coniferous and mixed forests.

A lot of well-known Czech personalities lived in this town, for example Mr. Foglar, J. Werich, Mrs. Martinova and the airman Lhota... There is an old church and a chapel.

Regrettably, every year there are floods in our town.

We have two schools and maybe four kindergartens.

I have lots of friends here, so we sometimes go to sweetshops and skating to the winter stadium (ice rink)!

When the robbers steal, the police arrive! Because near my school is a police station. Černošice has a new mayor!

There are markets every years! People buy a lots of things here. I like it!!!

The Midnight Train

by Nicolas Bertelsen

Once there was a man. They called him 'The KILLER'. But he made a mistake and the policemen arrested him and they executed him. But once a time he woke from the dead. He was calming down by killing on trains. But once a boy was born. He was destined to vanquish the Evil and when he reached eighteen years of age, he bumped into the Killer.

It was a long fight but the boy won. He found out something horrible, but nobody knows now what it was,... maybe something about his parents. As I said, nobody knows. BUT... He turned to the Evil side and started to kill good people and creatures. Somebody found out that The KILLER possessed him.

So he was raging again.

THE END

Ode to forgetting

by Wáňa Vološyn

In a small town (I forgot the name of the town) lived a man (I forgot his name too). All day he was doing – I can't remember what. But one day he remembered what he had forgotten, but I forgot, what he had remembered. So he lived happily in that town and did what he did.

A letter

by Wáňa Vološyn

Hi Margharitta,
I'm going to Nagma in Nepal. I'll become a monk and I'm going to learn how to fly. There will be some yacks, so landings will be soft. Then I'm going to fly to Australia to teach the Aborigines how to fly. We'll make a fleet of flying monks and then we will take over the control of the Earth.

The accident

by Wáňa Vološyn

It was winter 10pm and I was late for the zombie party. I got in my very old, slow and rusty car. I drove to the party. A green luminous dog ran into the frozen road. I saw the light, and I was afraid.

I tried to stop, but my car fell into pieces. I lost control of the pieces of my car. I hit a monumental oak.

Phone

by Miroslav Horáček

I felt nervous when the phone rang. I was sitting in a small dark house when it rang. I didn't know how I got there but I was there. The only thing that I wanted was to learn how I could get out of the house.

The house was familiar to me. Soon I had an idea: it was the house of my old friend from school, but with no windows or doors. The only windows that I found were in the old computer but the computer didn't have the Internet connection. I was walking through the house and the phone rang again. Then all the shapes were lost in the dark.

Finally, I woke up to a sunny day and saw seven missed calls on my mobile phone.

It was ten o'clock and I wasn't at school.

Music

by Miroslav Horáček

I listen to music every day but only when I am alone, for example when I go to or from school. I think that talking with friends is better than just listening to something. But sometimes we go to a concert. Already we have been to the Club Kino to listen to the Czech band Totální nasazení. It is a bad club but the band is very good.

I prefer Czech bands and I like bands from other countries too, like The Who, Red Hot Chili Peppers (they are good because they sing in a lot of styles) and lots of others. There is a wide scale of music styles that I like, but I prefer the bass in new songs and old songs are super if there is the trumpet.

And that was the last time I saw...

The UFO treasure

by Kryštof Košťák

And that was the last time I saw the world.
A UFO kidnapped me and took me to a prison in the middle of the Milky Way.
The prison was cold and dark. I wanted to escape from the prison, but there were guards, so I had to dig a tunnel.
When I was digging the tunnel, I found a treasure. I escaped and I was very, very rich. One day I jumped into the sea, but there wasn't any sea. So I killed myself. And I was happy, because it was really amazing.
In my next life, I was born as a poor worm.
I ate humus all the day and I couldn't be happier!

The mysterious cave

The mysterious cave

by Jonáš Verner

Long, long time ago, in a far galaxy, there was an empty cave. There was a village nearby, and the villagers said that ghosts were there.

One day a big adventurer Kristoforo Mendelssohn came to the village, and he was very interested in that cave.

He was born in a forest, without any parents. All he had was an axe and a picture of his mother. She was very beautiful.

Once he went to that village, he promised that he will stay there all night long. The villagers arranged his funeral immediately and they said he was a mad man! He laughed at them and packed his rucksack. In the evening, he went to the cave and he ate his dinner. As he was eating a sausage, he heard something screaming, like:

“UUUUUAAAAAAAAAYYYY...WRRRRRRR...!”

He thought it was a wolf howling outside, so he ate the sausage quickly. Suddenly, he saw something dark coming towards to him. He picked his axe quickly and threw it at the creature. He hit it and it fell down dead.

He looked at the creature. It was his mother. She wasn't very beautiful because she lived in that cave without a shower, toilet or other modern inventions. She was dead and he was very sad that he didn't even speak to her.

But he slept in that cave and the villagers pronounced him the new king of their village. They also gave him a new mother and they put her into the cave, but they gave some toilet paper and a shower to her, so everybody was happy. After some time, their planet was destroyed by Darth Vader's Death Star.

My dear car

by Karel Ružička

And that was the last time I saw it. I was really sad because it was a car which was really expensive and I spent a lot of money for it. I really like it and it was the car in which I went over 250 km per hour and after that I raced with the police. The policemen arrested me and my car was sold in an auction for funny 1.5 million. I was really angry about it. They sent me to prison for three years. And that was the last time I saw it.

A Dream

by Karel Ružička

I woke up suddenly and looked at the clock. I was very surprised because the clock was damaged and didn't show the time. I went to the living room and looked for my mobile phone. But I couldn't find it. After several minutes I found it but it didn't work. I was really confused and scared in the same time. I went to the kitchen and drank some water. I went out but the whole street was dark...

A Mystery Call

by Arnošt Kubín

I felt nervous, when the phone rang. I went to the phone and picked it up. On the phone was a mysterious voice. She told me: "I'm coming to you tonight."

I was very scared because I didn't know who she was and what she wanted. I watched TV, but I didn't forget about the mystery call. Then I wanted to walk my dog but I was really nervous and I looked around all the time. Ten minutes later I ran home and locked the door.

At ten o'clock I went to bed. I didn't sleep very long. After an hour the doorbell rang. I took the baseball bat and went to the door. I opened it very slowly. And in the shadow was a mystery person... Then the person walked into the light and I was really surprised. It was my grandmother! She wanted to surprise me. I forgot about my birthday.

The midnight train

The midnight train

by Adéla Pekárková and Petra Hašková

We were sitting at the station, when the train came. The door couldn't open, so Adéla knocked at it and the door suddenly opened. The conductor was lying on the floor and he was cutting his hand. When he saw us, he took his wife's gun and shot his head through.

We went upstairs and we sat down. The train was empty. It started to move. When it stopped at Vrazdilkov, some zombies came in. We were eating popcorn and watching a film (Zombieland), we were laughing out loud, so they heard us. They had green skin, yellow teeth because of smoking and drinking alcohol, red eyes and if you looked at their belly, you could even see their ribs...

They had axes and knives in their hands. We jumped up and started to run.

We didn't want to fight because we were too afraid. We finally got to the toilets. We went in and Petra quickly closed the door. The zombies were trying to get in. Soon they were so tired they left us at the toilet and went back to our seats. We heard some noise. We found out that they were watching Zombieland on our laptop. Petra didn't want to wait anymore. She left the room and went to the zombies. She watched the film with them. Adéla soon came out too and walked towards Petra. When the zombies fell asleep, Petra took the laptop and we ran away. We left the train and the poor zombies sleeping in it. We both hope we will never see them again...

A strange surprise.

A strange surprise

by Kačka Balousová

I wanted to give my best friend a surprise, but I had no idea. I thought about that for a long time, but I didn't come up with anything good and cool.

I still haven't told you why I wanted to give her a surprise. She had been on a trip around the world and she came back after one year.

Now, when you know why I wanted to give her the surprise, I should go back to my story.

One day, I finally had an idea! Me and my friends prepared her house for a party. When the big day came, me and all her friends hid in one room of her house and turned off the lights.

She came home and tried to switch on the lights, but nothing happened. She stopped on the spot and tried to listen carefully if someone wasn't in her house.

Everybody was as quite as they could.

But something was wrong. Suddenly, someone began screaming, everybody knew that it wasn't a part of the surprise...

Anna's exams

by William Strejček

Anna had a very special reason for getting up early the next day, so she set the alarm for 5 am.

Her next day will be a special day. Let me tell you her story.

The alarm started to ring. Anna got up really quickly, she was very nervous...

Today is her big day, because she is doing exams at her high school.

She made a quick breakfast. Suddenly, she realized that it was 8 o'clock. The exams were starting at 9 o'clock. She was stressed. Anna quickly grabbed her bag and ran out through the door. When she arrived, there were many people, teachers, parents as well as children. Sweat was running down her face. After a while the exams began. At first, she was shocked, she thought that she had forgotten everything but then she realised that there was nothing to be afraid of. She started to fill in the answer sheets...

Finally, the test was over. Anna had a really good feeling about it. Now, after a few weeks, she knows that she has passed her exams.

LOST CHILDREN

by Betty Cricket

Anna had a very special reason for getting up early the next day, so she set the alarm for 5 am. She has a very important match in Nevada. At 5 am she jumps out of her bed.

The road is really boring for her. She is in a forest. Lots of trees, boring road, silence. Suddenly she sees something strange on the road. A Child. A small boy with ripped clothes. She stops quickly.

“Hey boy, what are you doing here?”

“I am just standing here.”

“What?”

He is quiet.

“Where are your parents?”

“Over there” he says and points to the deep forest. “Can you go with me? I am scared I could get lost.”

“Sure!” He leads her deeper and deeper into the forest for a long time. She sees a playground. Very old, with broken equipment.

“Friends, come out!” he shouts. And suddenly Anna can see children. Many children. All dead. Some of them don’t have arms, legs or eyes. And the hand of the boy I am holding is just a bone!

“Will you stay with us? Will you be our new mum?”

Anna starts to yell...

Hangover

by David Mrázek

Mark and Angela looked at each other and started to laugh. They looked terrible. And they knew why. They remembered last night... and that one big hangover! It all started at school, where they were talking about a party. It was on Joe's 18th birthday. It looked like he invited whole school. Joe was popular. He was gorgeous, friendly, kind. He was "a piece of good man." Many girls liked him. There was only one thing about him... he was small, I mean he was only 1.67metres. So it was kind of funny. Whatever; they were laughing because of the party. At first, it started at 6 o'clock, but most people didn't arrive until nine.

They also expected a much bigger place, the garden just wasn't big enough. But after a few drinks, the mood was getting better. Everyone was friendly in a moment... and someone was more than just friendly. Mark always loved Angela, but he was too scared to tell her. But there, with all that atmosphere and drinks..., he just decided to tell her.

He found her dancing at the top of the fountain! He was also kind of funny... he didn't know it, but his shirt was covered with lipstick. Anyway, he tried to help her down, but they both fell. They started to laugh. Then they went into the house and did something,... we don't need to know. And now they are lying in a bed, staring at each other, but with great feelings.
