The lazy kingdom

by Adam Eliášek

A long time ago there was a very lazy kingdom. All people were very lazy. They wanted to do nothing. Except one. Mr. Healthy Life. He was interested in everything. He was very helpless and good. But he isn't important for this story. He did everything and other people liked it because they didn't have to do anything. The happiest was the king. His name was Mr. Lazyman. He had three sons: Loafer, Idler and Slob. They were the laziest in his kingdom. One lazy day in the lazy kingdom the king called his sons. He said: "I am old and I am going to die soon and the kingdom is going to need a new king. The king will be the laziest of you." Then they said their stories. Loafer was very lazy - if he wanted to walk he started sleeping. Idler was lazy too - if he sat on a chair he didn't want to stand up and the chair stuck to him. And Slob was also lazy - if he was burning he didn't want to put the fire out so Mr. Healthy Life had to save him. The king couldn't choose and so he said: "I will think about it until I die." But he was too lazy to die and he was the king forever.

Science Fiction

by Adam Eliášek

Yesterday, when I was on my way to my judo training, I saw a spaceship. In the spaceship were some green and very little aliens. They didn't speak my language so I didn't understand them. They took me into their spaceship and we flew to an army depot.

There they tested their illnesses on me. Luckily I was resistant to their illnesses. So they wanted to kill me for their medicine. They tied me to a chair and turned their murderous saw at me. I was very scared and I thought it was the end of me. Suddenly, when the saw was almost at my skin, a mysterious man flew into the spaceship and he saved me from death. He was a superman. He killed all the aliens except one with his laser eyes. The last one was their boss and he was very important so the Superman couldn't kill him.

He took me and the last alien to NASA. There were some famous scientists. They put the alien into the cage and explored it. Then they told me: "You've seen too much so we must clear your memory." After that they put a strange helmet on me for vacuuming my memory. They said: "It is for your own good," and started the machine.

Then I woke up in my Physics lesson and shouted: "Aaarrrrhhh!" All my class was looking at me and the teacher was very angry. But I was happy because it was just a scary dream.

An old lady gave me a magic flower. Then I heard these words, “Tell the flower what you want to be and then smell it for a long time.” I thanked her and put it in my bag. At home I said: “I want to be a king”, and I smelled the flower. But nothing happened. I smelled it again and closed my eyes. When I opened my eyes, I saw the flower’s dead head. I was very angry.

EXTRATERRESTRIAL

by Mary Janek

Hello, I am Mary. I am 12 years old. One day, I was at home alone. Some extraterrestrials arrived at our garden in their UFO. They got off and went to our house. I was afraid of them so I hid under my bed. They were looking for me. I could hear as they were going upstairs. They went to my bedroom. They looked under the bed and pulled me out. They crammed me into an iron box and put it into their big spaceship. When my parents came home, they could not find me! They searched the kitchen, the living room, my bedroom, the bathroom... but I was not there. They went out to the garden and they saw a leaving spaceship...

The Door

by Barbora Jasková

I went to our friend's party with my best friend Jenny. It was boring, but we stayed. After an hour and a half, a drunk girl started talking about some strange door. She said that she wanted to go to the toilet, but we didn't find out the ending of her story, because the girl threw up on us. So, because we were curios and bored we decided to find that strange door.

We went upstairs first, but we didn't find anything. Just some sleeping people in the room of the host's brother. And some smoking or drinking people standing in groups around.

Then we went downstairs. We searched the bathroom, kitchen, pantry and lot of other doors, but we didn't find that strange door.

But when we wanted to give up, we found a small door next to the kitchen. We opened it, with an idea that we will just find some old small storage room there, but we saw a big hall with some beautiful pictures all over it!!

But the strangest thing was that in the middle of the hall was A BIG EYE!!

A science-fiction story

by Marek Růžička

I'm Mark. I go to school and one day, our English teacher said: "Write about SCI-FI". I like SCI-FI and I wrote a lot about it, but I didn't manage to finish it so I took it home.

I was alone in our house. Suddenly, something landed in our garden and it looked like the Sun. It was making a lot of light and it was enormous. I was afraid of it. It was very strange so I hid under my bed and hoped the little green men would not go into my room. I was holding a knife and I was scared of them.

Then, about 10 minutes later, they came to my room. They were very small and because they were so small, they saw me. At the first moment, they had a shock and they jumped away, but after 30 seconds, they came back because they wanted to look at me. They were very funny and friendly. They said: "Don't be afraid of us, we are harmless."

I was still afraid of them but I stood up and followed them. They looked like normal people. They had a head, two legs and two arms. They landed here in their big grey plate. I hid them away from my parents in a cellar. They stayed here for two months and I enjoyed the time with them, but they had to go home. They got on their plate and I waved from the Earth to them. I didn't say this secret to anybody. I still remember them.

My alien teacher

by Matyáš Pavlík

I thought my teacher was an alien but I didn't know it. He was very different from other teachers.

On Monday I went to school past his house. I saw him in the bathroom with his green neck. He had a little green laser gun. He shot me with it and I ran away. He started his car and he flew in it!! I turned right to school. When I was at school, he flew to the sky. He dropped an atom bomb onto our school and "BOOOOOM!"

After that I flew one hundred kilometres up to the sky and he caught me. His car flew to the universe.

We landed in a mega battle space ship with too many canons. Two strong green aliens caught me and escorted me to my prison cell.

After twenty minutes, my old alien teacher visited me. He said: "Why did you go to school through my street?!" And I said: "Ermm, ...I don't know."

He was very angry and he put an aquarium on my head and kicked me out of his ship and I flew back to the Earth.

Silly kingdoms

by Matyáš Pavlík

A long time ago in a very far away galaxy, there was an Aquarium kingdom on an asteroid. In this aquarium kingdom there were some very lazy monsters. They were fighting with the Snail kingdom. The snail king said: "We must defeat the lazy monsters kingdom, or else they will eat us!" So they were fighting and fighting but there was no victory. They called Satan Claus and he said: "hugzut mugzut" and the monster kingdom exploded. After that he ate all the snails on the asteroid.

My time machine and my antioath

by Terka Mouchová

My name is Kate. Two years ago we had an English lesson. We were writing sci-fi stories. I wrote about how to build a time machine and an antioath.

My teacher liked it very much.

At home I tried to build my time machine and the antioath. It was very interesting. I tried if it could fly to the future. Then I was in future. It worked!!!!

HURRAY!!!

I was in 3014. It was horrible. Everywhere were ROBOTS. There were also some people. But they were very, very fat because they didn't work. Robots did the work.

Suddenly, I went to the past with my time machine.

I was in 1560. Girls and women wore beautiful dresses and umbrellas. Men wore handsome clothes. I went to the king. He told me about his daughter's curse.

I was scared. He said: "You must help my daughter."

Well... . I went to the princess's room. She was very beautiful. I used my antioath. Suddenly, the princess was the happiest person on Earth.

I was tired so I went home. I was very happy that I was at home. But the morning was horrible... all the story was a DREAM!!

Dog

by Iveta Janáčková

It was a dark night on Friday 13th 1939, 10 pm. I got in my super fast car and went to a jazz party. It was raining hard and I couldn't see anything. After ten minutes my left light stopped shining. Suddenly, I saw a small white dog. I tried to stop but I lost control of my car and hit a tall tree.....

When you look into it, you see everything.

When the mirror breaks, you never put it back together again.

Murder in the garden

by Míša Lendyel

I looked out of the window and a man was lying on the grass cut into pieces. I'm a detective so I started investigating. In the dustbin I found a katana (old Japanese sword). I found a fingerprint on it so I sent it to a laboratory. After a week, I got the results. I couldn't believe it. It was Mrs Smith who killed him. The oldest woman in the town! She said she had done it. She said: "I love killing." I sent her to a madhouse.

The waterfall of nervousnes

by Kamča Koppová

Peter felt nervous when the phone rang. He wanted to answer the phone, but...

I must start in the morning, if you want to know the whole story. Today, Peter was doing his high school entry exam. All night he couldn't fall asleep. In the morning he had a headache. The exam will be started in about one hour... "Started now!" the voice said and Peter started to write. And then, the exam was over. Peter came home and fell asleep.....

His mom was faster and she answered the phone first. "Congratulations! We will see you in September!" the man said.

Just another night

by Zuzana Bartůňková

You know how bad it is when lights in your house turn down?

I was home alone. It happened when I was in the shower, for some reason, all the electric devices turned off.

I was wet, grabbing for the towel. I walked downstairs to get a candle. While I was trying to light it, I burned my hair. Awesome. Then I went to the fuse box to find out what was going on. Nothing wrong there. It had to be something in the electric box outside.

I was walking in the darkness when I fell down over my cat. Poor kitty. Finally, I walked into the deep night outside. I repaired the stuff there and saw the house turn on. Some laughter was coming down the street – it was my friends. They saw me all wet in my pajamas. I felt embarrassed, but I started to laugh with them. After all, I must have looked funny.

The big chance

by Johanka Opravilová

Jacob felt nervous when the phone rang.

He lived in a small town in Pennsylvania. All his family was really poor, trying to make ends meet. Jacob was working hard every day in the fields and he did not have any free time to go out with his friends or even with some girl. Jacob was a clever boy. On his birthday celebration, when he was seventeen, his uncle Leonard promised to him that he would study with him and teach him to read. Jacob was smart, he learned quickly and remembered everything his uncle told him.

Today he was twenty and he was waiting for a telephone call which could change his life. He was waiting for the call from Corner University. It is one of the best veterinary schools. If he passed his exam, he would be a vet. It was a big chance for him.

The story about a man

by Jakub Černý

One day before the sun rose, the man was sitting in front of his cottage. Suddenly someone shouted, so the man jumped. There was a woman; she was angry, fat and quite old. She said “Why aren’t you working?” The man said to himself: “Why me?” He slowly stood up and went to the lumber mill, where he worked. At midnight, he was coming home, tired, when he saw some light - maybe ten metres in front of him.

Some unknown power was pushing him nearer to the light. Then he saw an angel in the middle of the light. She said: “Come with me and live happily until you die.” The man thought: “It is a good idea, I will go with her.” And he entered the light.

It is the end of the story... Maybe he is living happily now, maybe he died, but probably it is only some fairytale of the countryside, which was told to people by some dreamers.

A day on Malta

by Jakub Morávek

Once I went to Malta. The journey was horrible and I didn't know what I would do there because I don't like summer and the sun.

When I arrived in my hotel, I was disappointed and I wasn't sure where I was. So I went to bed. In the morning I was woken up by fresh air and the sun. I had a good breakfast and I decided to go to the beach before it would be horribly hot.

I was amazed how nice Malta was. When I was on the beach I sat on a rock and I was listening to the sounds of the sea. After a few minutes it was boring so I walked to the end of the beach and checked what there was. I saw something sparkling that was in the sand. It was maybe forty meters ahead of me so I walked that way. When I saw what it was, I was annoyed. It was just a bottle. I wanted to kick it but something was inside. So I opened the bottle and took it out. It was a letter, but it was written in Russian so I couldn't read it. I threw the bottle to a bin and put the paper into my pocket. When I got to my room, I started to translate what I found with the help of my notebook. When I finished I was disappointed. It was something like: If you find me, write an email to me about where you found this bottle.

So this was my first day on Malta.

My Dog

by Kryštof Košťák

A long time ago, when I was a child, I was going to the kindergarten where my mom put me because she wanted to work, not only take care of me all the time.

The kindergarten was about five minutes on foot from our house but it stood a bit away from the village I lived in. You had to go through a dark and (at night) scary forest. There were a lot of branches and you had to make an effort to get through it. People told a lot of legends and stories about the forest but I never believed them. I always thought that the forest was a nice and friendly place so I played there a lot.

In the kindergarten there were a lot of kids, mostly mean and rude kids. I didn't like it there because the kids were laughing at me that I was not from the same village and that our family didn't have as much money as they did.

One day I woke up. I thought that it would be a day like any other days, so I got up from my bed and went downstairs and then to the kindergarten through the forest. I got there and everything was going fine until lunch when Henry (the biggest and meanest kid) got somehow angrier and more aggressive than normally. He started to use me as a target for his compensations. He was laughing at me, and then punched me. I started to run home. As I was running through the forest, I heard some noise from behind the tree near the road. I went there and found out there was a little dog. He was dirty and probably wounded so I took him home. My mom was not happy and she didn't want me to keep him, but after some persuading, she said that I could.

About 15 years later (by the way, he never really changed from the time I took him home), he started to act little bit nervously and was more active than any time before. Once he was barking and howling all night long. I let him out but he bit my leg and then he pulled me out of the house. He got up on two legs and closed the door. “Thank you!” said the dog, “Chris, our race chose you as the best source of DNA and now it is time to give it to us. But we need more than your hair or something like that, we need your whole body, to create a new race of alien dogs.”

Then I saw some shadows behind him, probably it was his people. They took me to some alien ship and destroyed the Earth. Then I fell asleep. After some time I woke up. As I was looking down at my feet and my legs, I jumped out of the “bed”. I had dog paws! I didn’t know what it was but it scared the hell out of me. The dog people dropped me off with some man-dog woman on a planet. They told us to make a new nation of man-dog aliens. At the moment I am the king of Dogia, the biggest country on our planet. I am a dictator and an absolute emperor.

THE END

A pointless story

by Martin Hašek

A random bus was late, but I didn't care because I didn't want to catch the bus. I was laughing at people who were mad cause of the late arrival. When the bus finally arrived, I headed to a railway station and I caught my train there. A few stations later, I stepped out of the train, fell down on the ground and smashed my face. Karma, I guess, but I was kind of OK though. When I arrived home, I looked out of the windows and saw an old lady. I waved at her, but she didn't wave back. I was really sad. Nothing could make me happy except drugs. So I ate some LSD. Later that day, a dog passed me. "Thank you," said the dog. I got angry for no reason. I kicked the dog and never saw it again. At least I was happy again.
